Report to Inner East Community Committee
22nd March 2018

NEIGHBOURHOOD POLICING

Enhanced Neighbourhood Policing Model

Enhanced neighbourhood policing model in East Leeds - 26th March 2018.

- PEEL (Police effectiveness, efficiency & legitimacy) inspection highlighted areas for improvement in neighbourhood policing -

Problem solving

Community engagement

Tackling ASB

PWA structure.

- Corporate approach needed
- Consistency in staffing levels across all districts.

Current Sergeant led teams to be enhanced. Structure has to be replicated across the force to allow for the strengthening of PWA team numbers.

Staffing – Inner &amp; Outer East

Current position

EAST – INSPECTOR MICK PRESTON
EAST SERGEANTS x 6
EAST (INNER)	EAST (OUTER)
PC: 15	PC: 7
PCSO: 31	PCSO: 20

Enhanced model

Inner East

- Burmantofts & Richmond Hill – 4 PC's, 9 PCSO's – unchanged
- Gipton & Harehills – 8 PC's, 14 PCSO's – unchanged
- Killingbeck & Seacroft – 3 PC's, 6 PCSO's – unchanged

Outer East

- Halton & Temple Newsam – 2 PC's, 6 PCSO's
- Crossgates & Whinmoor – 3 PC's, 6 PCSO's
- Garforth, Kippax & Methley, 2 PC's, 7 PCSO's

Summary of Changes

- No loss of Ward Officers / PCSO's in East Leeds
- Uplift from 100 to approximately 110 Ward Officer PC's, the appointment of named PWA Inspectors and an increased number of PWA Police Sergeants across Leeds.
- Single strategic lead to oversee neighbourhood policing across the district – Chief Inspector Anwar Mohammed.
- Inner & Outer PWA's merged to create area PWA's, resulting in a reduction from 11 PWA's to 6.
- Consistent deployment of PWA Ward Officers - dedicated to partnership working to solve local problems.
- Linking problem solving to wider policing aims, reinforced by a strengthened supervisory model and improvements in I.T.
- Ward Officers and PCSO's allocated defined geographic areas.
- Continued recruitment and training of PCSO's.
- Bespoke training to support PWA officers and equip those working in neighbourhood policing for the first time.
- Development of a corporate community engagement framework.
