Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

Directorate: Children's Services

Service area: Targeted Services

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions. Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

family work to address Domestic Violence.
Is this a:
Strategy / Policy x Service	ce / Function Other
If other, please specify

2. Please provide a brief description of what you are screening

This impact assessment is of the decision to waive contract procedure rules to establish a contract with Barnardo's to work with families where domestic violence is a factor but where the levels do not meet the threshold of Multi Agency Risk Assessment Conference (MARAC) or Social Work Service involvement. The contract will have a clear preventative focus to work with families before the violence escalates to higher levels. The contract is for a city wide service. It is a completely new service that will be established with a provider that has considerable expertise in working with families and is a children's organisation.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

All the council's strategies/policies, services/functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – city wide or more local. These will also have a greater/lesser relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are.

When considering these questions think about age, carers, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation and any other relevant characteristics (for example socio-economic status, social class, income, unemployment, residential location or family background and education or skills levels).

Questions	Yes	No
Is there an existing or likely differential impact for the different		Х equality characteristics?
Have there been or likely to be any public concerns about the		X policy or proposal?
Could the proposal affect how our services, commissioning or		X procurement activities are organised, provided, located and by whom?
Could the proposal affect our workforce or employment		Х practices?
Does the proposal involve or will it have an impact on	X
 Eliminating unlawful discrimination, victimisation and harassment
Advancing equality of opportunity
Fostering good relations

If you have answered no to the questions above please complete sections 6 and 7

If you have answered yes to any of the above and;

- Believe you have already considered the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 4.
- Are not already considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 5.

4. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

If you can demonstrate you have considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you have carried out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

• How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration? (think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

The service will operate city wide following a notification from the police about a domestic violence incident or where social work services have undertaken an assessment of need but have determined that it does not require child protection intervention. The purpose of the service is to reduce harm caused to families by domestic violence so it will assist in protecting vulnerable families in particular focussing on children and young people.

Key findings

(think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

The service focus on domestic violence will promote community cohesion and assist with positive ways that families constructively resolve conflicts.

Actions

(think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact) The service will promote cohersion and help to reduce or remove the negative impact of domestic violence on families.
