

Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

1. Title: First World War – Commemoration programme

Is this a:

Strategy / Policy

Service / Function

Other

If other, please specify

2. Please provide a brief description of what you are screening

The marking of the centenary of the First World War between 2014 and 2018 is an opportunity to reflect on the impact the first global war had on the lives of men, women and children in our city and around the world. Leeds City Council, through a wide partnership team across the Council and including a range of partners in the city, is creating a programme of activities to mark the commemoration and bring together all groups and all ages across the city to learn, contribute and reflect on the First World War and the way it affected people in Leeds.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

The Council's programme will have a strong focus on community involvement, inclusion, diversity, intergenerational working, and young people. Activities will be created with sensitivity and in acknowledgement of the very broad range of issues and feelings that will be engendered by the Commemoration. We will seek to reach specific groups (examples here) and ensure that young people in particular are involved and benefit from the legacy of the Commemoration. Our aim is to encourage communities and generations across the city to share their family stories of the war.
