

Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

1. Title: Morley Heritage Centre

Is this a:

Strategy / Policy

Service / Function

Other

If other, please specify. Response to a deputation to the council

2. Please provide a brief description of what you are screening

At the full council meeting on 26th March 2014 members referred a deputation from Morley Heritage Centre to Executive Board for further consideration of the issues raised. The deputation requested the council to “consider allowing the Morley Heritage Centre a permanent location within the town centre and within current council owned property”.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

All the council's strategies/policies, services/functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – city wide or more local. These will also have a greater/lesser relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are.

When considering these questions think about age, carers, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation. Also those areas that impact on or relate to equality: tackling poverty and improving health and well-being.

Questions	Yes	No
Is there an existing or likely differential impact for the different equality characteristics?		X
Have there been or likely to be any public concerns about the policy or proposal?	X
Could the proposal affect how our services, commissioning or procurement activities are organised, provided, located and by whom?	X
Could the proposal affect our workforce or employment practices?		X
Does the proposal involve or will it have an impact on <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Eliminating unlawful discrimination, victimisation and harassment</li> <li>• Advancing equality of opportunity</li> <li>• Fostering good relations</li> </ul>	X

If you have answered no to the questions above please complete sections 6 and 7

If you have answered yes to any of the above and;

- Believe you have already considered the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 4.
- Are not already considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 5.

4. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

If you can demonstrate you have considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you have carried out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

- How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration? (think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

If the council is unable to provide accommodation in Morley Town Centre the Morley Heritage Centre group is likely to voice concerns. However if the council were to provide accommodation, there would be a likelihood that this will be seen as favouring one group over others.

The proposal could affect where council services covering Morley are located

The proposal could foster good relations with interested parties in Morley, but as stated above may be seen by some as showing favouritism to a particular individual, group, or activity.

- Key findings (think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

A decision either to provide or not to provide accommodation may create a public reaction, either by the group which presented the petition, were accommodation to be provided, or by other groups or individuals who feel they have been treated less than fairly in the event that accommodation is offered.

The location of council services will be addressed through the asset review process.

- Actions (think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)

The council will engage with Morley Heritage Centre to assist them identify sustainable sources of funding and an established constitution, this will reduce the risk that the council is perceived as providing free accommodation to one particular group but not others.

The asset review will establish whether a suitable location is available, and this will form the basis of consultation with Morley Heritage Centre, the Executive Board member and ward members, and potentially other interested parties.

5. If you are not already considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you will need to carry out an impact assessment.*
