

Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

If other, please specify Executive Decision

2. Please provide a brief description of what you are screening

The Learning Disability Community Support Service is seeking to develop a staff-led mutual in the form of a social enterprise. Permission was granted by Executive Board in February 2014 to establish transitional arrangements in preparation for a proposed transfer from the Council to the social enterprise.

Transitional arrangements are being put in place and a further report will be submitted to Executive Board in autumn 2014 seeking formal approval for the proposed transfer. .

In order to be ready to contract with Leeds City Council, appoint board members and protect the name it is necessary to undertake the preparatory step of creating and registering a legal vehicle which can be used by the social enterprise following, and contingent upon, approval of the proposals for the transfer by Executive Board. Approval is therefore sought for the Head of the Learning Disability Community Support Service to be authorised to create and register the legal vehicle and it is this decision which is being screened.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

All the council's strategies/policies, services/functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – city wide or more local. These will also have a greater/lesser relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are.

When considering these questions think about age, carers, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation and any other relevant characteristics (for example socio-economic status, social class, income, unemployment, residential location or family background and education or skills levels).

4. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

If you can demonstrate you have considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you have carried out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

- How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration? (think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

- Key findings (think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

- Actions (think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)
