Reasons for comment:

Comments: 3:10 PM on 29 Nov 2014 I would like to oppose the off license application made by Stella bheba for 1 Shafton lane holbeck but on web site it's showing 5a Shafton lane instead where the choens chemist is situated. This is ex dish shop situated on corner of domestic street and Shafton lane with adjacent building of high purpose cleaning company. Their are already more than enough off licenses in this area.this is a small shop on the corner which don't have enough room inside to put 1100 ltr bin for rubbish. Foot path on both side is too narrow which 2 person can literally pass side by side. If they put bin on the path than their is no room for pedestrian push chairs and old people trolleys. They will be forced to walk on the main road with the potential of hazards and accident. If some one release the break of bins it will roll down straight on main road.their is only one post office on same road and mostly people passed this shop with baby prams and old people with shopping trolleys.area is already famous for prostitution and off license will bring more nuisance and anti social behavior for local residents. no advert has been advertise in news paper yet.i strongly oppose th application on public safety and anti social behavior
