

Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

If you have answered no to the questions above please complete sections 6 and 7

- Believe you have already considered the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 4.
- Are not already considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 5.

4. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

If you can demonstrate you have considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you have carried out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

- How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration? (think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

The report describes the actions taken by the council to deliver and accelerate housing growth and has a focus on the provision of social and affordable housing for people on low incomes to support sustainable growth. By providing a mix of tenures, provision for people on different incomes, needs and aspirations can be accommodated.

- Key findings (think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

The proposals reflect the requirement to provide housing to meet the range of need and demand across the city.

• Actions

(think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)

Positive impact will be promoted particularly in the social housing sector where the provision of a range of housing options facilitates individual choice. This will include a positive impact on provision for families gained by releasing larger council and housing association homes for general family use as accommodation for smaller, sometimes older households, forms part of the strategic approach to provision.

5. If you are not already considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you will need to carry out an impact assessment.
