

Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

2. Please provide a brief description of what you are screening

There is a proposal to seek funding to design, build and operate a compressed natural gas (CNG) filling station. The development and financial model for this proposal is based on a unique and innovative model that will allow for the installation of a CNG filling station that will facilitate the transition to a cleaner fuel for the council's fleet of Refuse Collection vehicles. This will have a positive impact upon the Council reducing its contribution to harmful emissions and will support the Low Emission Strategy and Air Quality Action Plan.

The delivery of a CNG filling station will also provide for operational fuel savings for the council and will have a potentially positive economic as well as environmental impact, creating jobs and opportunity for transfer to CNG fuel for private sector businesses.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

All the council's strategies/policies, services/functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – city wide or more local. These will also have a greater/lesser relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are.

When considering these questions think about age, carers, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation. Also those areas that impact on or relate to equality: tackling poverty and improving health and well-being.

- How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration?

(think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

- Key findings

(think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

- Actions

(think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)
