

Appendix 2 - Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

• How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration?
(think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

We have considered the above in the following ways:

- Learning is delivered in accessible formats e.g. large print, braille, interpreters etc
- Learning takes place in accessible venues
- Information is in plain English and the sessions are structured
- Content of learning is relevant to participants work role
- Issues of equality and diversity are addressed in all learning
- Consideration given to start and finish times and days of the week for learning event to maximise participation

• Key findings
(think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

- Attendees are invited across internal services to maximise learning and shared experiences.
- Different skills and solutions are brought to the training by learners
- All groups are of sufficient size to maximise their learning experience
- Individuals with special needs have an opportunity to request in advance of the training the support they will need to participate fully

• Actions
(think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)

No further action needed
