

ARTICLE 15 - REVIEW AND REVISION OF THE CONSTITUTION

15.1 DUTY TO MONITOR AND REVIEW THE CONSTITUTION

15.1.1 The Monitoring Officer will monitor and review the operation of the Constitution to ensure that the aims and principles of the Constitution are given full effect.

- Protocol for monitoring and review of constitution

15.1.2 A key role for the Monitoring Officer is to be aware of the strengths and weaknesses of the Constitution adopted by the Council, and to make recommendations for ways in which it could be amended in order better to achieve the purposes set out in Article 1. In undertaking this task the Monitoring Officer may:

- observe meetings of different parts of the Member and officer structure;
- undertake an audit trail of a sample of decisions;
- record and analyse issues raised with him/her by Members, officers, the public and other relevant stakeholders; and/or
- compare practices in this authority with those in other comparable authorities, or national examples of best practice.

15.2 CHANGES TO THE CONSTITUTION

- Approval

15.2.1 Changes to Parts 1 and 2 of the Constitution will only be approved by the full Council after consideration of the proposal by the General Purposes Committee and following advice from the Monitoring Officer, save that authority to make certain changes is delegated to the Monitoring Officer as detailed at 15.2.3 below. Changes to the Constitution may be made by simple majority.

15.2.2 Changes to Parts 3 to 7 of the Constitution will be approved by the body or person to whom such authority has been delegated as indicated in the table set out at Annex 1 attached relevant Part of the Constitution. Where the approval of full Council is required for such changes in Parts 3 to 5 of the Constitution, then they will only be approved by full Council after consideration of the proposal by the General Purposes Committee and following advice from the Monitoring Officer.

15.2.3 The Monitoring Officer is authorised to make any changes to any Part of the Constitution which are required:

- as a result of legislative change or decisions of the Council<sup>1</sup> or Executive<sup>2</sup> to enable him/her to maintain it up to date;
- or for the purposes of clarification only.

15.2.4 All changes made by officers under delegated authority will be recorded as delegated decisions.
