

Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

All the council's strategies/policies, services/functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – city wide or more local. These will also have a greater/lesser relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are.

When considering these questions think about age, carers, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation and any other relevant characteristics (for example socio-economic status, social class, income, unemployment, residential location or family background and education or skills levels).

If you have answered no to the questions above please complete sections 6 and 7

If you have answered yes to any of the above and;

- Believe you have already considered the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 4.
- Are not already considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 5.

4. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

If you can demonstrate you have considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you have carried out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

- How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration? (think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected).

An equality screening exercise has been undertaken for the Council Housing Growth Programme. The main outcomes of the screening were that the delivery of affordable housing through this programme could have positive implications for equality groups who are economically disadvantaged and in the case of Westerton Walk positive implications for older people.

- Key findings

(think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

The new building will be HAPPI (Housing our ageing population: panel for innovation) compliant and designed in line with Home and Communities Agency standards. The extra care facility will allow residents choice and control over their health and social care services. The scheme will include communal facilities which will be open to other groups of older people from the surrounding community for example a communal dining room for local luncheon groups. The aim being to integrate residents into the local community and to facilitate interaction to the benefit of residents of the scheme and the surrounding community by increased socialisation opportunities and to enhance viability of services.

- Actions

(think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)

A set of eligibility criteria for allocation of the new units is being developed by Adult Social Care to ensure that those individuals and couples in the greatest need of the facilities and care which will be offered are able to take advantage of these opportunities
