Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions. Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

2. Please provide a brief description of what you are screening

The reablement service provides short term home care intervention, for approximately six weeks to work with people to regain skills and independence following a period of illness or impairment, or to contribute to an assessment where daily support is needed to fully understand a person's needs.

There are 192 support staff who work within the service. All staff work on a split shift rota pattern. The service currently uses an electronic staff rostering system to plan work programmes for staff. The contract for this system ends on 15th December 2016 and a procurement exercise has been undertaken for a replacement system.

Issues with implementation mean that the planned implementation date of the 21st November 2016 has not been met and the system will not be in place before the current contract ends on the 14th December.

It is critical that there is not a break between the contracts as this would lead to high levels of risk in the planning and communication of Support Worker visits.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

All the council's strategies/policies, services/functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – city wide or more local. These will also have a greater/lesser relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are.

When considering these questions think about age, carers, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation and any other relevant characteristics (for example socio-economic status, social class, income, unemployment, residential location or family background and education or skills levels).

4. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration
