

Equality, diversity, cohesion and integration screening – organisational change impacting on the workforce

As a public authority we need to ensure that all organisational change arrangements impacting on the workforce have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

Equality and diversity will always have relevancy to organisational changes which impact on a diverse workforce. If you can demonstrate you have considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration then you have already carried out an impact assessment.

A screening process is a short, sharp exercise, which completed at the earliest opportunity will help to determine:

- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being or has already been considered, and therefore
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

1. Please provide a brief description of the organisational change arrangements that you are screening
The purchase of machinery plant and equipment

2. Consideration of equality, diversity, cohesion and integration checklist

Questions	Yes	No
Have you already considered equality and diversity within your current and future planning?	x
Where you have made consideration does this relate to the range of equality characteristics	x
Have you considered positive and negative impacts for different equality characteristics	x
Have you considered any potential barriers for different groups	x
Have you used equality information and consultation where appropriate to develop your proposals	x
Is there a clear plan of how equality areas identified for improvement will be addressed	x

If you've answered no to the questions above, there may be gaps in your equality and diversity considerations and you should complete an equality and diversity, cohesion and integration impact assessment (organisational change). Please go to section 4.

If you've answered yes to the questions above and believe you've already considered the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 3.

3. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

If you can demonstrate that you've considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you have carried out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration?

(think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected.

The current framework for the procurement of plant and machinery is due to expire in 2018. A new tender process will need to be put in place and as part of that review, manufacturers will need to demonstrate how they can contribute towards the Council's commitment to protect equality characteristics.

Key findings

(think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another).

As part of the review it will be important that manufacturers can demonstrate that their machinery, plant and equipment is obtained from sustainable workforces.

Actions

(think about how you'll promote positive impact and remove or reduce negative impact)

This report is a technical report for the replacement of machinery, plant and equipment and does not affect any equality characteristics.

Working with the Council's Equality team will ensure that the new frame work will take into consideration any impact on any of the equality characteristics.
