1.0 Introduction

1.1 At the Scrutiny Board (Development) meeting on 18th July 2006 Members agreed to receive a presentation at the meeting today on the short, medium and long term transport policy for the city. The presentation is to incorporate what has been delivered against targets set in the Local Transport Plan (LTP1) and what is being planned for the future.

2.0 Presentation

2.1 An officer from the Development Department will lead the presentation.

2.2 A representative from METRO has been invited to attend to explain the work being undertaken with the bus companies and to discuss some of the issues which the Transport Executive and the local authority face over the authority's lack of control of bus services in the city. The Managing Director of First Bus has also been invited to attend to respond and contribute to this discussion.

2.3 The attached report (appendix) provides information on the development of a final delivery report for the first West Yorkshire Local Transport Plan 2001 – 2006, highlighting key achievements in Leeds over this period.

3.0 Recommendations

3.1 The Board is requested to:

- (i) receive the report, presentation, comment and ask questions as appropriate.
- (ii) consider what (if any) further information is required.
