1. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

The performance of each Council with Social Care Responsibilities is annually assessed by the Commission for Social Care Inspection (CSCI). Each Council is awarded a star rating which contributes to the current Comprehensive Performance Assessment of the Council. Directors of Adult Social Services are required to draw the attention of the Executive Board and the wider public to the report which is published at the end of this process.

2. PURPOSE OF THIS REPORT

To inform Members that the findings of the assessment and report are embargoed by the Inspectorate until 27 November 2008. In view of this, the full report of the Director of Adult Social Services has been designated as exempt from publication until 27 November 2008, upon which date the Star Rating and accompanying report will become an open document and will be published.

3. RECOMMENDATION

That Members note that the star rating and report of the Commission for Social Care Inspection will be published on 27 November 2008.
