1. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

Adult Social Services performance has been assessed by the Care Quality Commission for the performance year 2008/09. This assessment follows on from the Inspection of Adult Social Services which was reported to the Executive Board in December last year and is based on various assessment criteria including a detailed self assessment

2. PURPOSE OF THIS REPORT

To inform Members that, in line with the National Standards governing the annual reporting of performance and associated reporting protocols operated by the Care Quality Commission, the outcome of the performance assessment and accompanying report, are embargoed until 1.00 pm on the 2nd December 2009. In view of this the full report of the Director of Adult Social Services together with the accompanying letter from the Care Quality Commission has been designated as exempt from publication until 1.00 pm on 2 December 2009 upon which time and date the full report will become an open document and will be published.

3. RECOMMENDATION

That Members note that the outcomes of the Annual Performance Assessment of Adult Social Services report will be published on 2 December 2009.
