

Rothwell Interagency Meeting

Monday 22 November 2010 Rothwell One Stop Centre

ATTENDANCE
Cllr Steve Smith	Ward Councillor
Cllr Stewart Golton	Ward Councillor
Tom O'Donovan	Area Management
Nicky Greening	Priority Neighbourhood Worker
Inspector Susan Jenkinson	West Yorkshire Police
Mary Fleet	Rothwell Competitive Music Festival
Vicky Nunns	Parks & Countryside
Stuart Beaumont	Rothwell In Bloom
John Crapper	Oulton Society

1.0	Welcome and Introductions	ACTION
1.1	Welcome and introductions were made.
2.0	Apologies
2.1	Apologies were received from Glen O'Malley, Jo Shiffer, Julie Wood, and Councillor Don Wilson.
3.0	Minutes and Matters arising 20 th September 2010
3.1	The minutes were agreed as an accurate record of the meeting held on the 20 th September 2010.
3.2	Stuart Beaumont asked if a response had been received regarding street furniture. Tom O'Donovan was asked to follow up.	ТРО
4.0	Parks & Countryside A presentation by Vicky Nunns
4.1	Vicky Nunns updated the group on the current projects that Parks and Countryside are involved with in the Rothwell area.
4.2	As a result of the restructure within Parks and Countryside Fred Duff is no longer covering the area and Chris Nenedic is the new Operations Manager.
4.3	Water safety work at Springhead Park is taking place and signage work still requires completing for the area.
4.4	A budget of £46000 is available for the new BMX track which includes match funding from Grantscape.

 4.5 The group were informed that the maintenance of project will be covered by Parks and Countryside. 4.6 Parks and Countryside would like Springhead Park to become established as a beacon site for tennis, this would include floodlighting. 4.7 Vicky explained the significance of being recognised for it excellent tennis facilities and bringing in people from surrounding areas to play tennis. 4.8 Funding from Grantscape had been sought and a decision was expected in early January 2011. 4.9 A discussion took place on the new friendship groups at Rothwell Country Park and Woodlesford Park, the growing enthusiasm of the groups and the possibility of exploring funding opportunities to pursue additional projects. 4.10 A discussion took place on the lack of cricket facilities with in parks in the Outer South compared to the Inner South. 4.11 Vicky Nunns informed the group that this was likely to be a result of demand from people living within the area. 4.12 It was agreed that Woodlesford Park would be a great place for cricketing facilities and for them to become a permanent feature. 4.13 Action: Councillor Golton to approach Yorkshire Cricket Club as a possible funding source. 4.14 A member of the group asked if Parks and Countryside could name ownership of the field behind the Malten Estate. 4.16 It was noted by the group that local people named the area Water Haigh Park. 4.17 A member of the group asked if signage could be made available. 4.18 Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns. 4.19 The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region. 5.0 A.O.B 5.1 Inspector Sue Jenkinson informed the group that speeding in 	Appendix 5
established as a beacon site for tennis, this would include floodlighting.4.7Vicky explained the significance of being recognised for it excellent tennis facilities and bringing in people from surrounding areas to play tennis.4.8Funding from Grantscape had been sought and a decision was expected in early January 2011.4.9A discussion took place on the new friendship groups at Rothwell Country Park and Woodlesford Park, the growing enthusiasm of the groups and the possibility of exploring funding opportunities to pursue additional projects.4.10A discussion took place on the lack of cricket facilities with in parks in the Outer South compared to the Inner South.4.11Vicky Nunns informed the group that this was likely to be a result of demand from people living within the area.4.12It was agreed that Woodlesford Park would be a great place for cricketing facilities and for them to become a permanent feature.4.13Action: Councillor Golton to approach Yorkshire Cricket Club as a possible funding source.Clir Stewart Golton4.14A member of the group asked if Parks and Countryside could name ownership of the field behind the Malten Estate.Kit was noted by the group that local people named the area Water Haigh Park.4.17A member of the group asked if signage could be made available.Vicky Nunns4.18Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns.Vicky Nunns4.19The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region.Vicky Nunns	4.5
excellent tennis facilities and bringing in people from surrounding areas to play tennis.4.8Funding from Grantscape had been sought and a decision was expected in early January 2011.4.9A discussion took place on the new friendship groups at Rothwell Country Park and Woodlesford Park, the growing enthusiasm of the groups and the possibility of exploring funding opportunities to pursue additional projects.4.10A discussion took place on the lack of cricket facilities with in parks in the Outer South compared to the Inner South.4.11Vicky Nunns informed the group that this was likely to be a result of demand from people living within the area.4.12It was agreed that Woodlesford Park would be a great place for cricketing facilities and for them to become a permanent feature.4.13Action: Councillor Golton to approach Yorkshire Cricket Club as a possible funding source.Clir Stewart Golton4.14A member of the group asked if Parks and Countryside could name ownership of the field behind the Malten Estate.Vicky Nunns4.16It was noted by the group that local people named the area Water Haigh Park.Vicky Nunns4.17A member of the group asked if signage could be made available.Vicky Nunns4.18Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns.Vicky Nunns4.19The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region.Vicky Nunns	4.6	established as a beacon site for tennis, this would include expected in early January 2011.4.9A discussion took place on the new friendship groups at Rothwell Country Park and Woodlesford Park, the growing enthusiasm of the groups and the possibility of exploring funding opportunities to pursue additional projects.4.10A discussion took place on the lack of cricket facilities with in parks in the Outer South compared to the Inner South.4.11Vicky Nunns informed the group that this was likely to be a result of demand from people living within the area.4.12It was agreed that Woodlesford Park would be a great place for cricketing facilities and for them to become a permanent feature.4.13Action: Councillor Golton to approach Yorkshire Cricket Club as a possible funding source.Clir Stewart Golton4.14A member of the group asked if Parks and Countryside could name ownership of the field behind the Malten Estate.Vicky Nuns4.16It was noted by the group that local people named the area Water Haigh Park.Vicky Nuns4.17A member of the group asked if signage could be made available.Vicky Nuns4.18Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns.Vicky Nunns4.19The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region.Vicky	4.7	excellent tennis facilities and bringing in people from surrounding
Country Park and Woodlesford Park, the growing enthusiasm of the groups and the possibility of exploring funding opportunities to pursue additional projects.4.10A discussion took place on the lack of cricket facilities with in parks in the Outer South compared to the Inner South.4.11Vicky Nunns informed the group that this was likely to be a result of demand from people living within the area.4.12It was agreed that Woodlesford Park would be a great place for cricketing facilities and for them to become a permanent feature.4.13Action: Councillor Golton to approach Yorkshire Cricket Club as a possible funding source.Clir Stewart Golton4.14A member of the group asked if Parks and Countryside could name ownership of the field behind the Malten Estate.Clir Stewart Golton4.16It was noted by the group that local people named the area Water Haigh Park.Vicky Nunns4.17A member of the group asked if signage could be made available.Vicky Nunns4.18Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns.Vicky Nunns4.19The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region.Vicky Nunns	4.8
 parks in the Outer South compared to the Inner South. 4.11 Vicky Nunns informed the group that this was likely to be a result of demand from people living within the area. 4.12 It was agreed that Woodlesford Park would be a great place for cricketing facilities and for them to become a permanent feature. 4.13 Action: Councillor Golton to approach Yorkshire Cricket Club as a possible funding source. 4.14 A member of the group asked if Parks and Countryside could name ownership of the field behind the Malten Estate. 4.15 The group were informed that the first field is owned by Parks and Countryside and is known as Fleet Lane Rec. 4.16 It was noted by the group that local people named the area Water Haigh Park. 4.18 Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns. 4.19 The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region. 5.0 A.O.B 	4.9	Country Park and Woodlesford Park, the growing enthusiasm of the groups and the possibility of exploring funding opportunities to
 of demand from people living within the area. 4.12 It was agreed that Woodlesford Park would be a great place for cricketing facilities and for them to become a permanent feature. 4.13 Action: Councillor Golton to approach Yorkshire Cricket Club as a possible funding source. 4.14 A member of the group asked if Parks and Countryside could name ownership of the field behind the Malten Estate. 4.15 The group were informed that the first field is owned by Parks and Countryside and is known as Fleet Lane Rec. 4.16 It was noted by the group that local people named the area Water Haigh Park. 4.17 A member of the group asked if signage could be made available. 4.18 Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns. 4.19 The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region. 5.0 A.O.B 	4.10
 cricketing facilities and for them to become a permanent feature. 4.13 Action: Councillor Golton to approach Yorkshire Cricket Club as a possible funding source. 4.14 A member of the group asked if Parks and Countryside could name ownership of the field behind the Malten Estate. 4.15 The group were informed that the first field is owned by Parks and Countryside and is known as Fleet Lane Rec. 4.16 It was noted by the group that local people named the area Water Haigh Park. 4.17 A member of the group asked if signage could be made available. 4.18 Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns. 4.19 The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region. 5.0 A.O.B 	4.11
 4.13 Action: Councilior Golden to approach Forkshire Cricket Club as a possible funding source. 4.14 A member of the group asked if Parks and Countryside could name ownership of the field behind the Malten Estate. 4.15 The group were informed that the first field is owned by Parks and Countryside and is known as Fleet Lane Rec. 4.16 It was noted by the group that local people named the area Water Haigh Park. 4.17 A member of the group asked if signage could be made available. 4.18 Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns. 4.19 The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region. 5.0 A.O.B 	4.12
 4.14 A member of the group asked if Parks and Countryside could name ownership of the field behind the Malten Estate. 4.15 The group were informed that the first field is owned by Parks and Countryside and is known as Fleet Lane Rec. 4.16 It was noted by the group that local people named the area Water Haigh Park. 4.17 A member of the group asked if signage could be made available. 4.18 Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns. 4.19 The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region. 5.0 A.O.B 	4.13		Stewart and Countryside and is known as Fleet Lane Rec. 4.16 It was noted by the group that local people named the area Water Haigh Park. 4.17 A member of the group asked if signage could be made available. 4.18 Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns. 4.19 The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region. 5.0 A.O.B 	4.14
 Haigh Park. 4.17 A member of the group asked if signage could be made available. 4.18 Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns. 4.19 The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region. 5.0 A.O.B 	4.15
 4.18 Action: Site visit to be arranged with Glen O'Malley, Councillor Golton, Vicky Nunns. 4.19 The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region. 5.0 A.O.B 	4.16
Golton, Vicky Nunns.Nunns4.19The group were informed that the active Woodlesford In Bloom Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region.Nunns5.0A.O.BImage: Comparison of the section of the sect	4.17	A member of the group asked if signage could be made available.
Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire Region. 5.0 A.O.B	4.18
	4.19	Group will be representing Britain In Bloom for the Yorkshire
5.1 Inspector Sue Jenkinson informed the group that speeding in	5.0	A.O.B
	5.1	Inspector Sue Jenkinson informed the group that speeding in

App	Appendix 5
	Carlton Village and on Leadwell Lane was still an issue.
5.2	Recent action had taken place with the leafleting of the school to raise the issue.
5.3	With regard to Rothwell Town Centre Councillor Smith informed the group that Commercial Street was in Phase 3 of developments and talks were still ongoing with Morrisons.
5.4	One option suggested was levelling out the land making the areas in to a farmers market. The group were informed that a development would take place and the land would not be left as a building site.
5.5	Stuart Beamount highlighted concerns about trade dropping of at Commercial Street and levels between the right and left hand of the street being different.	ТРО
5.7	Councillor Golton expressed his appreciation for the good coordination of the road closure for Remembrance Day, this worked very well compared to last years.
5.8	The Police are still uncertain what the NPT re-structure will look like and will know more information in 2011.
6.0	Date and Time of next meeting
6.1	Monday 24 th January 2011 6:30pm Rothwell One Stop				