It is not proposed to permit the general public to enter the premises to purchase goods. The primary operation of the business is the sale of gifts, including fine wines and champagnes to customers, through home delivery. Various sales channels will be employed including, but not limited to, internet sales, mail order and telephone sales. Adequate steps will be in place to ensure alcohol is not sold or delivered to persons under 18 years of age.

b) The prevention of crime and disorder

Notices shall be displayed on the company's website and promotional material stating that 'It is against the law to sell or supply alcohol to, or to obtain alcohol on behalf of, a person under the age of 18 years.'

All customers will have to provide their date of birth details and to also make a declaration that they are over 18 years of age before the order for alcohol will be processed.

The licence holder shall take all reasonable steps to ensure that alcohol orders are only delivered to persons over the age of 18; clear instructions to delivery drivers will be given when the goods are dispatched; if there is any doubt then delivery drivers will be instructed to ask for photographic identification; a Passport, Driving Licence or PASS approved ID, if a delivery driver suspects that any alcohol to be supplied may result in underage consumption then the sale is to be refused and the goods returned to the premises.

A log of orders, customer details and addresses shall be kept and made available to the Police or an Authorised Officer on request.

All payments must be made by way of credit or debit card at the time of ordering.

No cash transactions are to take place at the customers address.

All alcohol will be securely stored in locked areas

A responsible person shall be on duty at all times regulated activities are taking place

All staff shall be trained in the terms of the licence and their responsibilities under the Licensing Act 2003 and a record of such training kept

c) Public safety

The premises operator will ensure that all relevant fire safety and health & safety risk assessments are in place and made available to authorised officers on request.

Fire detectors and fire extinguishers shall be positioned and maintained in accordance with the risk assessment for the premises.

d) The prevention of public nuisance

All reasonable steps shall be taken to ensure that no nuisance is caused to persons living in the vicinity of the premises.
