3 Main issues

3.1 Area Committee Links

- 3.1.1 In the 2012-15 Outer South Area Committee Area Business Plan, Members have identified supporting community events that offer the opportunity for residents to be involved with cultural and sporting activities as a key priority under the theme of 'Culture' to contribute towards the City Priority Plan outcome 'Get more people involved in the city's cultural opportunities through increasing the proportion of adults and children who regularly participate in cultural activities'
- 3.1.2 Members identified Morley Literature Festival as a strong vehicle for community engagement and an opportunity to develop further the strong community spirit in Morley. The festival is now a prestigious event which alongside other initiatives provides the town with a strong annual calendar of events, supported by all partners.

- 3.2.1 The attached evaluation report has been written by the Festival Director, in conjunction with the Chair and the Festival Committee Executive Members. The report structure covers all key aspects of the festival and provides recommendations for each section that will form the basis of the framework for the Festival Committee to consider the future organisation of the event.
- 3.2.2 The 2012 Morley Literature Festival continued its predecessor's trend and was hugely successful. The programme of events this year increased engagement with community partners and used more community venues. Events were also staged in Morley Town Hall, Morley Library, Tingley Methodist Church, St Peter's Church, Churwell Community Centre and Gildersome Conservative Club. The programme had a high quality line up including Peter Hook, Gavin Esler, Stuart Maconie and Val McDermid. The Literary Luncheon was a sell out again this year. The festival continued to benefit from the patronage of Gervase Phinn who was installed as the festival patron in 2010.

3.2.3 As detailed in the attached evaluation report, improvements to the delivery of the festival were made in 2012. Further areas for improvement have been identified through the evaluation process that will enhance the future delivery of the festival.

3.2.4 The committee are confident of continuing to deliver a successful festival next year and would like to thank the Area Committee for approving funding in this years budget for 2013. The Festival Committee would also ask the Area Committee to consider providing the same funding arrangement for 2014. Area Committee Wellbeing Funding will provide a secure foundation for the delivery of the eighth festival in 2013; in particular it will allow the committee to secure the services of the Director at this crucial time. The Area Committee are asked to note that any funding will be subject to Leeds City Council Executive Board approval of the 2013/14 revenue Wellbeing Budget and beyond.
