Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions. Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

All the council's strategies/policies, services/functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – city wide or more local. These will also have a greater/lesser relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are.

When considering these questions think about age, carers, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation. Also those areas that impact on or relate to equality: tackling poverty and improving health and well-being.

| Questions | Yes | No |

| Does the proposal involve or will it have an impact on Eliminating unlawful discrimination, victimisation and harassment Advancing equality of opportunity Fostering good relations | x | |

If you have answered no to the questions above please complete sections 6 and 7

If you have answered yes to any of the above and;

- Believe you have already considered the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 4.
- Are not already considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 5.

4. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

If you can demonstrate you have considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you have carried out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

• How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration? (think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

The Plan has been subject to a consideration of equality, diversity, cohesion and integration in the following ways:

- The evidence base used to develop proposals and where data indicates that there is a need to address different equality characteristics
- The Plan's calls to action and how these can help to address and improve the position for different equality characteristics and foster good relationships
- The Plan's proposed interventions both specifically in terms of where there is a need to address different equality characteristics and how these can in general

improve the position and foster good relationships

The Plan has been subject to an extensive consultation and circulated to various equality groups for comment

Key findings

(think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

The Plan and the calls/interventions within it have the potential to have a positive impact on all the equality characteristics, and the potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, and between groups and the Council. In particular, the call to action relating to the Council and city's ambition to have a workforce/labour market that is more representative of the diversity of our communities.

• Actions

(think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)

As actions are brought forward (where these are within the Council's remit to deliver), further analysis of potential opportunities to have an impact on EDCI will be undertaken.

Following adoption the Council will engage with partners in the city with a focus on EDCI matters to review the impact of the Plan and specific interventions on groups.
