Thank you [REDACTED] – here is all the information you have requested:

Oddity

1hr 38 mins

Irish horror film about a blind psychic who vows to unearth the truth about her sister's murder with the help of a cursed wooden mannequin. Includes strong violence and disturbing scenes.

No extreme content or anything that would require an R18 classification.

Recommended Certificate 18.

Vue Light Cinema 14th September 9pm

LIFF 2024 Trailer Reel

60 mins approx

A selection of trailers representing a range of different films across the Leeds International Film Festival 2024 programme, including new drama, genre fiction, documentaries and archive selections. All the films without existing BBFC certificates will later be passed through Licensing at the end of October. We will restrict the event to over 18s only and not include anything with controversial content and nothing that would be classified as R18.

Recommended Certificate 18.

Vue Light Cinema 9th October 5.30pm & 7pm

Hyde Park Picture House 9th October 6pm

Mill Hill Chapel 10th October (a shorter edited version of the trailer reel to be shown through the day)

Certification advice will be advertised in our promotional materials and online and shared with the Leeds Ticketing team who administrate advance bookings. Experience festival staff will be employed at the venue to check tickets and ask for proof of age where necessary.

If you need anything else, please let us know.

Many thanks,
