Good Morning [Redacted]

Apologies for the slow response.

I can confirm that my client can agree the following conditions, set out in your attached letter:

-There will be no admittance to the premises after 2300 hrs. The premises will use an external service window hatch after 2300 hrs to serve customers.

-The premises shall maintain adequate lighting both internally and externally at the window hatch at all times the premises is open to the public.

-A monthly check of the CCTV will be recorded and produced for inspection immediately upon the request of an officer of a responsible authority.

-Customers shall be discouraged from drinking alcohol or congregating outside the premises.

Can you please confirm that your representation is now withdrawn.

Many thanks
