Dear Resident,

It was good to meet [REDACTED] on Wednesday evening at the premises.

I hope that meeting with the [REDACTED] and the [REDACTED] went some way to allay your concerns. As was discussed at the meeting, they are a well-established operator, operating in four other cities, without incident. They are a comedy club and the premises licence is conditioned accordingly. The premises is not and will not be a night club.

In addition, and as discussed we are in liaison with environmental health in relation to agreeing conditions with them.

I hope that from the meeting, that you will now be able to withdraw your representations, if this is the case, if you could please email entertainment.licensing@leeds.gov.uk and let them know.

In the meantime should you have any questions, please do not hesitate to reach out to either myself or [REDACTED]. I attach again for ease the Glee background information so that you have a full understanding of the operation that will take place at the premises, should a licence be granted.

Many thanks

Dear Resident,

I am writing just to remind you that there is a meeting at the premises tomorrow at 1800hrs, should you wish to attend to meet the operator. Thank you for those who have already confirmed if they are coming, or have let me know that they are unable to make it.

Please see attached a 'Glee Brochure' setting out background details about the operator and their style of operation, to give you a better understanding of the proposed offer.

If you have not let me know, but are coming, if you could please email me, so that we have a rough idea on numbers.

Kind regards,

Dear Resident,

We have received a copy of your representation from Leeds City Council.

As a professional operator who seeks to work with both the responsible authorities and local residents alike, we would like to invite you to a meeting at the premises. The meeting will take place at the premises at 18:00 hours next Wednesday, 13 March 2024. The meeting will give you an opportunity to meet the operator and for them to give you a full understanding of the offer that is being proposed and to discuss any concerns you may have.

If you could please confirm if you are able to attend this meeting, by responding to me via this email address.

Kind regards
