Does the report contain confidential or exempt information? Yes No

Brief summary

In line with its Terms of Reference, the Council's Employment Committee has authority to appoint those senior officers, as defined within the Officer Employment Procedure Rules and the Committee's Terms of Reference.

The purpose of this report is to provide Members with an overview of the governance arrangements and format for this specific Employment Committee which will have responsibility for the recruitment to the post of Chief Digital Information Officer.

Recommendations: The Committee is recommended to note:-

- a) The governance arrangements and format relating to the Employment Committee; and
- b) The Council's requirements regarding the consideration and disclosure of confidential information.

What is this report about?

- 1 Quorum and Membership – The Constitution requires that the membership of an Employment Committee be a minimum of 3 and must include 1 member of the Executive. Agreement has been reached for the membership of this Employment Committee to be 4, with Members being appointed in line with the overall political composition of the Council.
- 2 Quorum - Members are asked to also note that the quorum for an Employment Committee is 2 Members, including 1 Member of the Executive Board.
- 3 Confidential Information - The Council's Access to Information Procedure Rules require that the public must be excluded from meetings whenever it is likely that in view of the nature of the business to be transacted, or the nature of the proceedings that confidential information would be disclosed. As such, the personal information contained within an appendix to agenda item 7 which identifies individuals in the form of application details, is designated as being confidential under the provisions of Access to Information Procedure Rule 9. Therefore, when the committee considers this information, the public must be excluded from the meeting.
- 4 Process following interviews - The Committee is invited to note that before an offer of employment can be made, the Executive must be notified of the name (and any other details deemed relevant) of the individual that Employment Committee recommends that the post be offered to. Executive Members would then have a designated period of time to raise any objections to this recommendation. Should any objections be raised, it would then be up to the Employment Committee to determine whether they are material and/or well founded. (Procedure Rule 4, within the Appendix provides further detail).
