

Public Document Pack

Licensing Sub-Committee 5th April 2022

Supplementary Information

Agenda Item 7 – Leeds Young Film Festival 2022

This page is intentionally left blank

Title	Synopsis	Recommended Rating	Officer Comments
The Ape Star	Jonna has lived at the Renfanan children’s home her whole life. She’s always dreamed of having a mother. One day a gorilla pops round in a banged-up old car and adopts her. It takes a while for Jonna to get used to things, but just as things are settling down the local town councillor threatens their very existence.	PG	No concerns with the applicant’s recommended PG Classification.
Buster’s World	Even when faced with difficulties, happy-go-lucky 11-year old Buster never loses his sense of humour – he is an optimist and ambitious to become one of the greatest magicians of Denmark.	12A	One use of a swear word, in context, no concerns. Suitable for a 12A.
Louis & Luca: Mission to the Moon	The moon is up for grabs and Alfie, along with raven Louis and hedgehog Luca are determined to build a rocket and claim it in the name of Norway. With support from the government it looks like they might succeed but a dastardly plan to steal the moondust may put them all in jeopardy.	PG	No concerns with the applicant’s recommended PG Classification.
A Butterfly’s Heart	Live action. Juozapas is a quiet boy who breeds insects in an abandoned house and always wears a wide sweater. That’s why the other kids call him Balloon. But then Rugilė moves to the city. She becomes friends with Juozapas and is the first to learn about his secret.	PG	A theme of bullying throughout with instances of discrimination and infrequent threat and horror. The film contains content which is more in keeping with a 12/12A classification. 5:00 Instance of bullying 48:00 Small children driving a car 1:19:00 Ongoing bullying in school – no consequence 1:21:00 Threat of violence from brother

			1:29 TWOC a tractor 1:31 Child falls in water – taken to hospital 1:41 Resolution unrealistic
School of Magical Animals	Live action. CGI animated adventure about an unusual school, where the children receive a magical animal as a companion and centres on the new girl Ida, who goes from being an outsider to the star student thanks to her magical animal, the talking fox Rabbat.	PG	No concerns with the applicant’s recommended PG Classification.
Kiwi & Strit	The two funny and furry little creatures Kiwi and Strit live in a clearing in the forest. Kiwi is considerate, careful and yellow, while Strit is wild and purple and they have very different approaches to almost everything. But they are both very playful and curious. Whereas season 1 introduced the two main characters, their friendship and life in the clearing in the forest ,the second season Kiwi & Strit will learn how to solve their fellow forest creature’s problems. The two best friends discover new places that allow for new adventures and friendships, making it more fun to be Kiwi & Strit.	PG	Animated short film, very sweet, no concerns with PG classification.
The Path	On the run from the Nazis, Rolf and his father find themselves stranded in southern France. The young shepherd girl Nuria has offered to guide them along a secret path through the Pyrenees, but Rolf’s father is then arrested halfway. Will the two children manage to escape on their own?	12A	08:57 dog in boiling pot, resolved quickly, no harm. Some dangerous behaviour, using guns, but in context, not glamorised and not likely to be copied. Moderate physical and psychological threat. Overall tone is hopeful and ending uplifting. Suitable for 12A.
The Seekers: Thrill Night	A Home Alone adventure set during Halloween. A fun film for the whole family about growing up, changes of life and, most importantly, friendship.	12A	Occasional scenes involving mild threat and horror sequences but well within the guidelines for a 12A classification. No concerns.

Martin and the Magical Forest	A young city kid, Martin, has to overcome himself and stay in the summer camp without his everyday's comfort or any technology.	PG	No longer being screened – not for consideration.
Where is Anne Frank?	The animated film Where Is Anne Frank tells from a new perspective the history of the German-Jewish girl Anne Frank who kept a diary while in hiding in Amsterdam during World War II.	12A	No concerns with the applicant's recommended 12A Classification.
The School Garden	In Holland, a school garden system has been in place for over 100 years. Each year, primary schools take their kids to the fields where the youngsters will learn how to sow, grow and cook food. From classroom to nature, they will learn something important with their hands, the cycle of life. Dirty your hands and boots, and enjoy your own harvest. How to grow vegetables? What better ways to fight obesity and create biodiversity?! The kids will get close to nature and animals.	PG	A documentary regarding school children gardening. No concerns. PG suitable.
The Strangest Girl In the World	Melién is 15 years old and has an incredible imagination. She loves to read fantasy books, draw monsters, and write mystery stories. She is happy with the way she is, even though at school they say that she is "The weirdest girl in the world." But she has bigger problems, apparently her drawings are coming to life.	12A	No longer being screened – not for consideration.
Super Furball Saves the Future	To save the world, Super Furball has to save the bees. In order to do that, the heroic guinea pig has to save the biggest bully in school.	PG	Fantasy adventure film. No concerns. Suitable for PG.

The Exploits of Moominpappa –Adventures of a Young Moomin	As Moomintroll gets wasp-stung and must lie in bed Moominpappa wants to cheer him up by telling about his own adventurous youth.	PG	Stop motion animation, no concerns. Slight tension but all resolved. Suitable for PG.
Vinski & the Invisibility Powder	Vinski meets a mysterious pharmacist who gives him a bottle of magical powder. A powder that allows you to become invisible for real and walk through walls. It is fantastic to have the powers of a superhero, but soon a group of crooks becomes interested in the secret of invisibility as well.	PG	Crime caper style film suitable for PG.
An Cailín Ciúin	A quiet, neglected girl is sent away from her dysfunctional family to live with foster parents for the summer. She blossoms in their care, but in this house where there are meant to be no secrets, she discovers one.	12A	Has since been classified by the BBFC.