Assessment Flowchart

Step 1 - Initial Tests

Step 2 – Applying Assessment Criteria

Step 3 – Deciding what further action is appropriate

Would investigation of the matter be in the public interest and would it serve any useful purpose?

Consider the following factors:

- If proven to be true, would the alleged conduct undoubtedly warrant a sanction (except training)?
- If any "other action" were to fail, would investigation be the preferred course of action?
- Does the complaint fundamentally challenge the subject Member's honesty or integrity?

YES

NO

The Assessment Sub-Committee can refer the matter to the Monitoring Officer for Local Investigation.

Does the case fall into any of the following categories?:

- There is evidence of poor understanding of the Code and/or the Council's procedures
- The matter involves a breakdown in relationships to such an extent that it is difficult to conduct the business of the Council e.g. evidenced by a pattern of allegations of minor disrespect, harassment or bullying
- The other action proposed would assist in the proper functioning of the Council
- The case involves the same breach of the Code by many Members
- The case involves misleading, unclear or misunderstood advice from officers
- There is evidence of a lack of experience or training
- The case involves interpersonal conflict
- There have been allegations and retaliatory allegations from the same Members
- The allegations are about how formal meetings are conducted
- The allegations may be symptomatic of governance problems within the Council, which are more significant than the allegations in themselves
