The Bentwich Syndrome

Director: Gur Bentwich

Country: Israel, UK

Year: 2015

Genre: Documentary

Running time: 70 mins

Language: Hebrew and English with English subtitles

From humble origins in Whitechapel, the eccentric and ambitious 19th century lawyer Herbert Bentwich set out to establish an aristocratic Jewish dynasty, having a profound impact on British Jewish life and on the new state of Israel. In this brilliantly wry documentary, Bentwich's great-grandson Gur sets out to discover the truth about this much-maligned and enigmatic family. Along the way, he uncovers a remarkable story, funny and sometimes tragic, of fervent Zionists, inspired artists, and outrageously determined rebels. Suggested certificate: PG
