

Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

This report considers the challenges and complexities of changing the way we travel into and around the city to create a more people friendly and productive urban core, identifying the key policy principles that the Council will need to adopt and progress to deliver the benefits associated with this transformational change. Appendix 1 presents a vision to Executive Board for a new direction in transport, for Leeds as a prosperous, liveable, healthy and sustainable 21st century city. The vision presents a short, medium and long term transport investment programme.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

All the council's strategies/policies, services/functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – city wide or more local. These will also have a greater/lesser relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are.

When considering these questions think about age, carers, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation. Also those areas that impact on or relate to equality: tackling poverty and improving health and well-being.

Is there an existing or likely differential impact for the different equality characteristics?	X
Have there been or likely to be any public concerns about the policy or proposal?	x

Could the proposal affect our workforce or employment practices?		X

If you have answered no to the questions above please complete sections 6 and 7

If you have answered yes to any of the above and;

- Believe you have already considered the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 4.
- Are not already considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 5.

4. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

If you can demonstrate you have considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you have carried out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

• How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration?
(think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

The strategic proposition for Our Transport Vision for a 21st Century Leeds has the potential positive impact of improved public transport and local connectivity, which in turn could increase access to employment, education, and leisure services and facilities for all equality groups.

• Key findings
(think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

The screening highlights that any specific impacts on equality characteristics will need to be looked at as part of the progression of individual transport schemes.

• Actions
(think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)

As the project proceeds the appropriate EDCI assessment procedure will then be invoked. It is anticipated that this will highlight that any specific impacts on equality characteristics will need to be looked at in-line with the specific areas identified for progression.
