

Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being/has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

The partner proposals to establish the Centre for Retail and Hospitality Excellence seek to impact positively on equality, diversity and inclusion by improving the life chances of individuals living in some of our most disadvantaged communities to support them to access work. The centre will also support those workers in the targeted predominantly low paid sectors to acquire new skills and progress in work.

The partner providers delivering the skills training on behalf of the centre all have written Equality and Diversity policies and are compliant with the requirements of the Education and Skills Funding Agency and the Office for Students.
