

Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being or has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

Waiver of contract procedure rules and award of a contract to Barnardo's for delivery of Willow young carers service.

Willow is an essential service providing support to young carers by enabling them to maximise the opportunities and benefits provided in universal settings such as schools, sports centres, youth provision, organised and informal out of school settings which provide young carers specific opportunities for those young carers whose circumstances mean that they need more targeted support.

The review of the Willow service was completed in 2017 and the findings were overall very positive. The review found that the service is delivering excellent value for money, with positive outcomes and high levels of service satisfaction from young carers and other stakeholders.

One of the key proposals arising out of this review was to develop a new Leeds Young Carers Strategy, which will help inform future commissioning and improve outcomes for young carers through more effective partnership working and use of resources. Approval has been obtained to develop the strategy and consultation is currently underway.

It is anticipated that consultation on the strategy will be completed in December 2018, with a subsequent tender exercise to be completed by June 2019 and a new contract starting December 2019. The current contract with Barnardo's expires 31st March 2019 and so an interim contract is required to ensure service continuity.

- How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration? (think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

- Key findings (think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

- Actions (think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)
