

Our priorities

Radicalisation

In addition to making sure we can effectively respond in event of a terrorist attack, we must all work together to prevent people from being radicalised in the first place. There are often a number of complex factors which can make somebody vulnerable to radicalisation so it is crucial that we work together across the community to identify those at risk as early as we can and safeguard them from extremism. The Prevent Duty gives direction for the police and partners around our shared responsibility to combat the threat of radicalisation within our communities and we will work together to ensure that we are all playing our part in this.

Sexual abuse

Sexual violence and abuse is any harmful sexual behaviour which is unwanted and takes place without consent or understanding. This type of crime can have a devastating effect on the person's health and wellbeing. I will continue to work with the police and partners to target offenders, give victims the confidence to come forward and report these crimes, and make all forms of sexual abuse and violence unacceptable. I will continue to make sure that services for all victims of sexual abuse are available in West Yorkshire to support them to cope and recover.

Road safety

Road safety is clearly a significant issue for people and is frequently raised as a concern by members of the public across West Yorkshire, with approximately 40% of respondents naming it as a key priority in our Police and Crime Plan consultation. It covers a range of issues from inconsiderate parking to dangerous driving all of which can have a major impact on people's lives. This is another area that requires activity from more than just the police, and I will continue to work with all partners including councils, highways agencies, and charities to improve safety on our roads through education, enforcement and prevention.

Strategic Policing Requirement

PCCs and Chief Constables have a responsibility to make sure that their police service can respond to national and international threats under the Strategic Policing Requirement. These threats include terrorism, serious public disorder, organised crime, major cyber incidents, civil emergencies and CSEA. I will continue to work with West Yorkshire Police and other organisations across the North East Region to ensure that we can support each other in times of need, and collectively keep our region and country safe.
