The Inner North East Community Committee is attended by councillors and local residents from Chapel Allerton, Moortown and Roundhay wards.

The role of the Committee is to improve local service delivery and ensure resident voices are heard.

They also invest their Wellbeing funding and Youth Activities Fund monies in community projects across the three wards.

In this update we'll look at last year's achievements and highlight some of the fantastic community projects that were supported by the Committee.

Green Areas In Inner North East

The last 12 months has seen a number of green areas in the boundary either being refurbished or developed into spaces that would be used by families and the local community. Also a number of local parks are in the process of being refurbished.

Moortown Community Garden

The garden was officially open despite the snowy and wintery conditions in Spring 2018. The Moortown Ward Councillors joined residents for the official opening of the Moortown Community Garden at Moortown Corner. The initial concept was put forward by Moortown Community Group back in 2014. The area consists of seating, planters, an information

Roundhay Park

The start of 2019 saw the official opening of the new playground at Roundhay Park. With the support of local councillors, the majority of the funding of the playground was done through Friends of Roundhay Park. The new play area features include a castle, pirate ship, static train, swings, somersault bars and an explorer's bridge and a roundabout.

Moortown Park

December saw a new large green play space with a secure dedicated play area for younger children open. The park features a play area with swings, monkey bars and a roundabout, as well as a sandpit and seating areas. The official opening of the park took place on 29 June 2019, which was organised by the Friends Of Moortown Park, with the support of ward members and council officers. Summer Bands Herr Jens's Band played The weather on the day was favorable and it was a lovely hot summers day. Fabian Hamilton and local councilors was in attendance.
