

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being or has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

1. Title: Variation to Home Plus (Leeds) Contract to Include CCG Funding

Is this a:

Strategy / Policy
 Service / Function
 Other

If other, please specify

2. Please provide a brief description of what you are screening

The intention to vary the Home Plus (Leeds) contract, in response to the securing of additional investment from Leeds CCG.

It is intended to use this funding to address the longer-term strategic ambition of the CCG to focus investment on reducing health inequalities, and will be used to increase provision to those living in more deprived areas of Leeds and those from BAME backgrounds.

It will pay for a dedicated outreach post to build links with primary care (including LCPs), other health agencies, community networks and relevant voluntary sector organisations, and additional staff capacity and works budget to meet the increased demand.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

All the council's strategies and policies, service and functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – city wide or more local. These will also have a greater or lesser relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are.

When considering these questions think about age, carers, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation. Also those areas that impact on or relate to equality: tackling poverty and improving health and well-being.

If you have answered no to the questions above please complete sections 6 and 7

If you have answered yes to any of the above and;

- Believe you have already considered the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 4.
- Are not already considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 5.

4. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

If you can demonstrate you have considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you have carried out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

• How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration?
(think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

The proposal is to increase access to certain groups, such as those on lower incomes and from BAME backgrounds. As such it will address inequality, particularly around health outcomes.

During the initial service modelling a Health & Needs Assessment was carried out, which noted that areas of deprivation generally see higher proportions of:

- income-deprived older people;
- people being admitted to hospital because of falls;
- frailty; and
- fuel poverty.

This work will help to address that.

• Key findings
(think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

The service is targeted at those most in need of help to improve health and wellbeing and tackle poverty

• Actions
(think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)

Through the implementation of this new outreach role.

5. If you are not already considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you will need to carry out an impact assessment.*
