

Project Name	Armley Park Notice Board
Amount applied for	£1,650
Lead Organisation	Leeds City Council Parks and Countryside
Ward/Neighbourhood	Armley

Community Plan Objective	Best City for Communities
---------------------------------	---------------------------

Project Summary
To supply and install a notice board in addition to the existing one at Armley Park nearer to the entrance

When will the project run?
May 2021

Targets for the project and how success will be measured
The notice board will ensure that people visiting the park are briefed of initiatives and changes involving Armley Park and it is hoped will be of particular use to people who do not access the internet or follow related pages on social media.

How the project will be promoted and/or participation encouraged
Consultation has been carried out with the Friends, community and Ward Members who will all be informed once the notice board is installed.

Exit strategy/How the project will continue after the funding
Once the notice board has been installed, City Signs will maintain it should it break whilst under guarantee. After this period the notice board can be repaired and maintained subject to further funding.
