

Appendix 5 Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration (EDCI) screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions. Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being or has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

If other, please specify: Land acquisition

2. Please provide a brief description of what you are screening
This screening exercise concerns the proposal for the Council to acquire third party land to enable highways improvements at A674 /A620 Dawson’s Corner. Dawson’s Corner has a strategic location on the transport network, it is the junction between the Leeds-Bradford corridor and the Outer Ring Road. Dawson’s Corner is also located on the Bradford to Leeds Cycle Superhighway and facilitates access to the New Pudsey railway station. Improvements at Dawson’s Corner are a key component in the wider package of measures proposed along the Bradford to Leeds route. The area has recently experienced major investment to deliver the Bradford to Leeds Cycle Superhighway.

To improve the capacity of Dawson's Corner and improve pedestrian and cycle facilities, the footprint of the junction will need to be increased. The Dawson's Corner improvement scheme replaces the existing signalised roundabout with a signalised gyratory, which has significantly larger footprint. Dawson's Corner comprises of four approach roads: A647 Bradford Road, A6120 Ring Road, B6157 Bradford Road and A647 Stanningley Bypass.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

All the council's strategies and policies, service and functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – city wide or more local. These will also have a greater or lesser relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are.

When considering these questions think about age, carers, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation. Also those areas that impact on or relate to equality: tackling poverty and improving health and well-being.

Questions	Yes	No
Is there an existing or likely differential impact for the different equality characteristics?	X
Have there been or likely to be any public concerns about the policy or proposal?	X
Could the proposal affect how our services, commissioning or procurement activities are organised, provided, located and by whom?		X
Could the proposal affect our workforce or employment practices?		X
Does the proposal involve or will it have an impact on <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Eliminating unlawful discrimination, victimisation and harassment</li> <li>• Advancing equality of opportunity</li> <li>• Fostering good relations</li> </ul>	X

If you have answered no to the questions above please complete sections 6 and 7

If you have answered yes to any of the above and;

- Believe you have already considered the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 4.
- Are not already considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration within your proposal please go to section 5.

4. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

If you can demonstrate you have considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you have carried out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

• How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration?
(think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

The proposed scheme at Dawson's Corner includes improvements to the pedestrian and cycle facilities including controlled crossing facilities. Changes to junction may affect mobility (The improvements are likely to be beneficial for the mobility impaired and children).

The first round of engagement to identify issues and potential opportunities was undertaken in February 2018. A second programme of public engagement was undertaken in November 2018.

188 people provide feedback to the proposals for Dawson's Corner, which consisted of: widening the junction, creating a bus lane, installing Microprocessor Optimised Vehicle Actuation (MOVA) controlled traffic signals and enhancing the pedestrian/cyclist realm. 96 (51%) of the respondents felt positive or slightly positive about the proposals, 56 (30%) of the respondents felt negative or slightly negative and 36 (19%) of the respondents felt neutral.

• Key findings
(think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

The proposals form part of the wider emerging transport strategy incorporating feedback from the Transport Conversation (seeking views of Leeds' residents and interest groups on the future of transport in Leeds). Taken together the proposal is intended to facilitate access to employment especially by bus, walking and cycling, which are measures which can help to advance equality of opportunity.

The scheme improves the cycle crossing facilities and ties-in to the previously consulted Bradford to Leeds Cycle Superhighway. Also, the pedestrian crossing facilities includes the addition of a new shared cycle footway through the centre of the junction. These measures will reduce community severance and provide enhanced mobility for users including disabled, elderly and young people.

The scheme will reduce queuing and congestion on the approaches to the new junction, which will have a beneficial effect on greenhouse gas emissions, journey time and reliability.

• Actions
(think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)

The Highways and Transportation service will follow well practiced procedures in engaging with relevant groups and adopting design standards to achieve the expected outcomes.

5. If you are not already considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you will need to carry out an impact assessment.
