A new City Plan for Leeds

September 2021

#TEAMLEEDS

Why now for a City Plan?

New council leadership - offers the chance to refresh our vision and ambitions for the city.

Build on the positive learning from the pandemic – multi-agency partnership working, a city that has come together, communities supporting one another, promoting public health.

Take stock to consider the city's strengths and challenges – using the 2021 JSA, Covid-19 Learning Lessons Review and 10th anniversary of the Commission on the Future of Local Government as background.

Respond to significant and ongoing change – first West Yorkshire Mayor, further change in the NHS / Integrated Care System, council's budget challenge.

economic challenge, Brexit, and the opportunities for the city.

Restate our ambition – to position Leeds as a leading international city which celebrates its diversity, and still one of the best places to live, work, visit, study and invest.

#TEAMLEEDS

Position Leeds to maximise opportunities – developing shared goals and strategic intent amongst partners and positioning the city to bid for and attract new funding.

Respond together to an unprecedented moment in time – including impact of Covid-19 on existing inequalities, the emerging

Joint Strategic Assessment – Headline Messages

- Leeds population is growing at both ends of the age spectrum, with the younger population becoming more diverse.
- Population growth is concentrated in inner-city communities more likely to experience poverty.
- Life expectancy gap across wards: 11.5 years for males and 13.7 years for females
- Emerging issues from the pandemic – most prominently worsening mental health across ages.

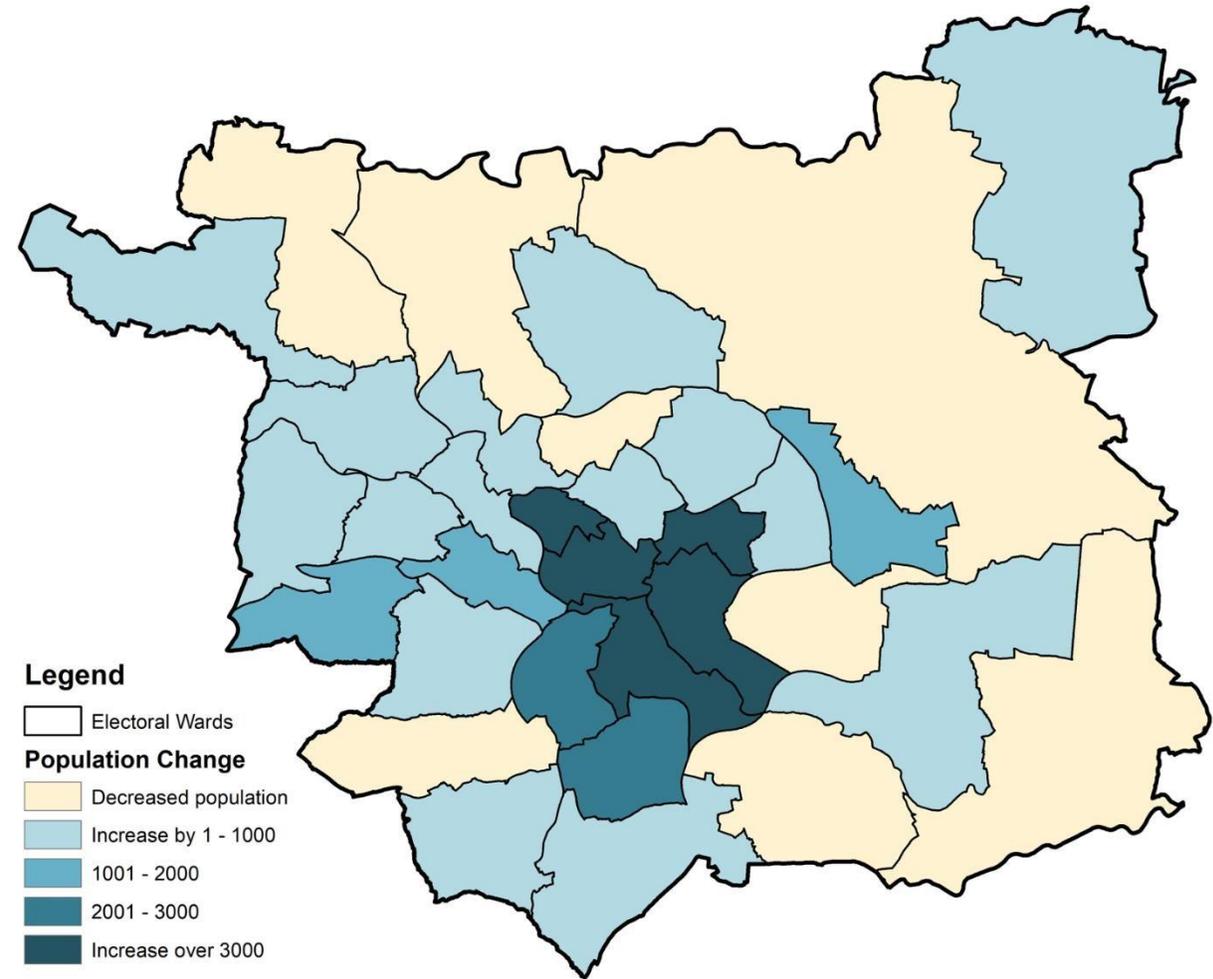

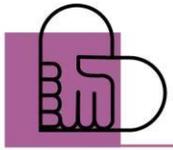

#TEAMLEEDS

Joint Strategic Assessment – Headline Messages

- Child poverty is at the root of a range of poor outcomes for children and young people – almost 24% (under 16s) in Leeds, 19% nationally.
- Educational attainment in Leeds, especially for disadvantaged pupils and at KS2, significantly lower than national averages.
- The largest concentration of older people is in communities most likely to be experiencing deprivation.

- The number of older people in employment has risen in last 20 years – presenting challenges and opportunities.

Joint Strategic Assessment – Headline Messages

- Unparalleled scale of change in the life of the city due to the Covid-19 pandemic. around 3,000 third sector organisations and up to 70,000 volunteers.
- But Leeds has strong foundations to recover – built on a strong employment rate, and a diverse knowledge-based economy built through economic expansion over the last two decades.
- Covid-19 has demonstrated the city's community resilience – supported by
