TITLE:	Perfect Strangers
LENGTH: (in Minutes)	95 mins
SYNOPSIS:	Seven lifelong friends –three couples and a newly divorced man – meet for dinner on the night of a rare lunar eclipse. In order to spice things up, they decide to play a game: every text message received is read out loud, and every incoming call answered on speaker. As the night progresses, secrets and lies – about infidelities, money problems and mental wellbeing – are being exposed, leaving the once close-knit group completely shattered. Based on the Italian international hit film of the same name, Israeli actor Lior Ashkenazi’s deliciously toxic debut feature as director asks how well we really know those closest to us, and whether honesty is indeed the best policy.
