The funding for this round includes the core contribution of £101,343 from Leeds Inspired and a further £28k from UK Shared Prosperity Fund (UKSPF) that will result in additional activity for the city and its communities in 2023, the Year of Culture.

Recommendations

- a) The Chief Officer Culture & Economy is recommended to accept the grant allocations as proposed in Section 11 to the total of £129,343
- b) The Chief Officer, Culture and Economy is asked to note that the core budget for this round of Leeds Inspired (£101,343) is boosted by an injection of funds from Culture Programmes' allocation of the UK Shared Prosperity Fund (UKSPF). £28,000 of the UKSPF allocation is provided to enhance cultural and community engagement during LEEDS 2023, the city's Year of Culture.

What is this report about?

- 1 To outline the proposed Leeds Inspired Main grants to support activity and events which will engage artists and local people in creative and cultural opportunities.
- 2 The grants are allocated in line with the Executive board decision to introduce Leeds Inspired made in July 2011.
- 3 The grants support the following Best City Culture Priorities
Inclusive Growth – Supporting the city’s economic recovery from Covid-19
Culture – Growing the cultural and creative sector + Ensuring that culture can be created and experienced by anyone.

What impact will this proposal have?

- 4 Leeds Inspired provides funding for arts projects, events and activity that Leeds residents of all ages can get involved in.
- 5 The scheme funds individuals, organisations and voluntary groups, supporting first time applicants as well as more established organisations, contributing to the sustainability of the creative sector in the city.
- 6 Leeds Inspired funding often acts as match funding to lever in additional money into the activity and the city. It is one of the only sources of arts-specific match funding available to artists and organisations when applying to larger external funders such as Arts Council England and National Lottery Heritage Grants.
- 7 UKSPF will provide a boost to the Leeds Inspired Grant fund, enabling additional activity to take place than would otherwise take place. The measure of increased impact will be delivered with additional funding through LCC’s UKSPF allocation. A key decision (D55735) was taken in October 2022 authorising UKSPF activity which supports the regional West Yorkshire Local Investment Plan managed by WYCA.
