Brief summary

- Every school in England must include religious education as part of its curriculum. Every local authority must appoint a Standing Advisory Committee for Religious Education (SACRE) to support this provision.
- SACREs have a duty to publish an annual report, ideally by the 31st December each calendar year. This report has to be sent to the Secretary of State for Education as well as to key partners, including schools, teacher training institutions, libraries and councillors.
- This report considers the priorities for SACRE over the last year and the progress made on them; the main areas of discussions at SACRE meetings; work to review RE provision in secondary schools in Leeds; the Welcoming Schools initiative; results in RE in external exams; production of a Sensitivity to Faiths document and details of the professional support and training offered by SACRE consultants.
