

Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration Screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being or has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

The approval to procure contracts for the supply of personal protection equipment (PPE), workwear & uniforms.

- There is a statutory requirement for the Council to provide PPE to its employees under the PPE at Work Regulations 2022 and the Health and Safety at Work etc. Act 1974.
- In addition to the above statutory obligation the Council also provides clothing and footwear to those employees that are engaged in certain tasks to ensure they have suitable and durable clothing for the type of task they are expected to carry out. This clothing follows a corporate style and carries a Leeds City Council brand identity.
- The Council’s current contracts for the provision of workwear and the provision of PPE are due to expire on 10th April 2024.

- The procurement of new contracts will be awarded following a competitive tender under the Council’s Contract Procedure Rules (CPRs).
- The tender specification document will contain a requirement for products to be provided in a fit suitable for all body shapes for both men and women and across a wide range of sizes to meet the needs of all staff.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

All the council’s strategies and policies, service and functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – city wide or more local. These will also have a greater or lesser relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are.

When considering these questions think about age, carers, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation. Also those areas that impact on or relate to equality: tackling poverty and improving health and well-being.

4. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

If you can demonstrate you have considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you have carried out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

- How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration? (think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

- Key findings (think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

- Actions (think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)
