

Equality, Diversity, Cohesion and Integration (EDCI) screening

As a public authority we need to ensure that all our strategies, policies, service and functions, both current and proposed have given proper consideration to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

A screening process can help judge relevance and provides a record of both the process and decision. Screening should be a short, sharp exercise that determines relevance for all new and revised strategies, policies, services and functions.

Completed at the earliest opportunity it will help to determine:

- the relevance of proposals and decisions to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.
- whether or not equality, diversity, cohesion and integration is being or has already been considered, and
- whether or not it is necessary to carry out an impact assessment.

2. Please provide a brief description of what you are screening

The decision to procure Targeted Short Breaks through a competitive grants process.

Current arrangements are going to cease at the end of September 2024. Issuing grants through a competitive process will ensure this support remains in place for C&YP with SEND and their families/carers from the 1st of October 2024 with no gap in service.

In collaboration with parents and carers, the Commissioning Team is transforming the Short Breaks offer in Leeds, starting from 1st October 2024. The transformation will be implemented incrementally, with some changes occurring immediately and others within 12 to 18 months. This approach will allow time for the changes to be embedded into services that will be vital to the new model, such as the Early Help and CHAD teams. During this period, the commissioning team will work with providers to identify alternative sources of income and become self-funded.

The purpose of this competitive grant process is to ensure children, young people, parents and carers' needs are met while maintaining high quality and varied targeted short breaks offer for C&YP with SEND in compliance with the principles of the Children and Families Act 2014. The total value will be no more than £317,500 per annum.

3. Relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

All the council's strategies and policies, service and functions affect service users, employees or the wider community – city wide or more local. These will also have a greater or lesser relevance to equality, diversity, cohesion and integration.

The following questions will help you to identify how relevant your proposals are.

When considering these questions think about age, carers, disability, gender reassignment, race, religion or belief, sex, sexual orientation. Also those areas that impact on or relate to equality: tackling poverty and improving health and well-being.

4. Considering the impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration

If you can demonstrate you have considered how your proposals impact on equality, diversity, cohesion and integration you have carried out an impact assessment.

Please provide specific details for all three areas below (use the prompts for guidance).

- How have you considered equality, diversity, cohesion and integration? (think about the scope of the proposal, who is likely to be affected, equality related information, gaps in information and plans to address, consultation and engagement activities (taken place or planned) with those likely to be affected)

- Key findings (think about any potential positive and negative impact on different equality characteristics, potential to promote strong and positive relationships between groups, potential to bring groups/communities into increased contact with each other, perception that the proposal could benefit one group at the expense of another)

- Actions (think about how you will promote positive impact and remove/ reduce negative impact)
